

Music Conference

Thursday, 8th July 2010
at Bath Spa University

Feedback from last year:

'...a fantastically inspiring day'

'...You definitely need to go!'

'...informative, fun and inspirational'

Do you teach music? Would you like some new ideas?
Want to consolidate your knowledge? Improve your skills?
Be able to support other teachers? Offer your pupils something new?

Then this conference is for YOU!

Workshops & events include: Dig Those Sticks, Sing and Sign, SoundBeam, Val Whitlock (co-author of Singing Sherlock), Charanga, multi-cultural story telling using instruments, music technology, conducting skills, Mostyn Music, the creative curriculum, school choir performance, trade stand exhibition and...

A GRAND RAFFLE with fantastic prizes to win for your school!

£80 (Students & Music Leader members £40) includes 4 workshops & packed lunch

For more information and a booking form go to:

<http://www.bathspa.ac.uk> and follow the link for the conference