

Professional Masters Programme

Award Routes Generic Framework

60 credits- First stage for all Awards

- General Awards: work-based and independent study modules
- Specialised Awards: (see pages ....)

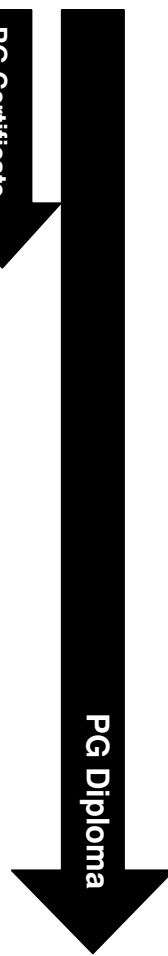

Credit for professional experience and other previous HE courses or equivalent (APL) – only available for PGDip and MA qualifications.

60 credits – Second stage PG Dip Award OR 30 credits – Second stage for Master’s Award.

- Award specific modules OR
- Mid-stage Master’s modules on:
  - Learning and teaching OR
  - Leading and Coaching OR
  - Education, Politics & Society OR
  - Learning & Knowledge Technology OR
  - Inclusion

All options include attendance at the Educational Context Seminars:
The English Education System since 1960, etc.

30 credits – Compulsory Second Stage for all Master’s Awards

Research and the Professional Part 1
Includes gaining an understanding of research methodologies

Research and the Professional Part 2
Includes project proposal for continuation to the dissertation final stage for a Master’s Award

60 credits – Final Stage Master’s Awards
Master’s Research Project or Cognate

Where a specific award title is being followed, the research project must reflect the subject or area of specialism.

Progression onto MPhil and PhD is available via consultation with your award leader and/or the head of research.

