

Work-based Continuing Professional Development

At Bath Spa University we offer a wide range of school-based CPD opportunities. We are keen to provide professional development which reflects the changing contexts and priorities of schools, networks and clusters. We provide specific CPD programmes in:

Learning and Teaching in the 21st Century

(Fiona Maine: f.maine@bathspa.ac.uk)

Your project focuses might include:

- Creative approaches to curriculum design
- The central role of talk and collaborative learning in the classroom
- Promoting and teaching 'learning to learn' dispositions
- The place of Web 2.0 technologies to enhance learning

Mentoring and Coaching

(Ruth Barrington: r.barrington@bathspa.ac.uk)

Your mentoring and coaching project could include:

- The similarities and differences between mentoring and coaching
- The place of mentoring and coaching in the workplace
- Skills and knowledge associated with mentoring and coaching
- The development of a coaching culture in your school/ setting.

Leadership Development

(Paulette Wisdom: p.wisdom@bathspa.ac.uk;

Nick Sorensen: n.sorensen@bathspa.ac.uk)

Your leadership development module could include:

- Reflection on leadership aspirations and practice
- Leadership styles and their impact upon school climate
- The leadership of learning.
- The leadership of change
- Building and leading effective teams
