

Findings	Actions to be taken	Date for completion	Action responsibility	Success indicators	Progress (including dates of review)
Good practice
The highly effective formal and informal support mechanisms available to students that have a positive impact on their personal development and academic progression.	To present a workshop at the University's Learning and Teaching Symposium to share good practice and explore opportunities for enhancement. To introduce a 360 degree approach to enhance the end of term student reports – inclusion of student self-reflection on academic and personal goals in reports.	July 2017 Trial at end of Term 4 for current students and introduce fully September 2017 for 2017/18 academic year	Managing Director of Bath Spa Global, Programme Manager of Bath Spa Global, Student Services Manager of Bath Spa Global, Head of Quality at Bath Spa University Managing Director of Bath Spa Global, Programme Manager of Bath Spa Global	Evaluation forms during the workshop; staff from across the University will be attending, identifying during the workshop opportunities to scale up current practice, making it relevant for other areas of the University We will see this in the more active engagement of students with student reporting structures at the end of term reporting time, and expect to see this reflected in attainment on the programme. Evaluation of the success of this will be included in the Student Forum feedback. We will add a question to our end of term student survey which assesses this too.	Initial review July 2017, follow up review end of teaching block one in December 2017 Review end of January 2018 and monitor through 2017/18 academic year